Exchange Place

There are so many great things about our region – our friendly people, our (generally) good weather. And there is also our unique history, which is emblemized by our three very special sites -- NETHERLAND INN, EXCHANGE PLACE and HAMMOND HOUSE. All of these locations are quite distinctive, due in large part to their important location on Tennessee’s earliest roads and trails and, of course, the Holston River.

In our bylaws, it clearly states that The Netherland Inn / Exchange Place Association is dedicated to “...contributing to the understanding and appreciation of the early history... and... the preservation of important landmarks, antiques, relics, and documents as a part of our national heritage.” Each site plays its part by being open at various times of the year, but we also strive to fulfill our mission by offering memberships in the Association.

No doubt you have a good idea about how much damage our sites all suffered when Covid-19 ran rampant through our region. We are only now beginning to emerge from this global disaster, and your membership will go a long way towards helping us climb out of the deep hole caused by this deadly virus.

You may also have thought about giving back to our community, and we can make that a reality. Besides being a financial supporter, you could also consider volunteering at one (or more!) of our sites. Volunteers are essential to our success, and we have plenty of opportunities for you to become involved, meet new friends and learn more about Kingsport’s unique history.

We ask you, then, to please take a moment to think of our HISTORIC TREASURES, and select your membership category from the list below. Your Association membership will help keep our heritage alive for future generations. And please also encourage your friends to become members!
